

Melissa is the NIHR CLAHRC / ARC North Thames Research & Implementation Facilitator and member of the Research Partnership Team (RPT). She engages with partners to identify their needs and potential for research that could be supported or co-delivered by our RPT; works closely with our Implementation Lead to align our progress with regional and national priorities, and contributes to teaching and learning via our Academy.