

The CLAHRC Academy held its latest installment of the popular Introduction to Evaluation workshop on Tuesday 13 June.

With 28 delegates from a wide range of NHS Trusts, Local Authorities and CCGs, there was in-depth discussion and engagement around all aspects of the evaluation process.

Throughout the day, delegates applied what they had learnt to create their own plans for service evaluations, and shared ideas and experiences with tutors and each other.

A few comments from our participants:

"Vey engaging, I particularly enjoyed/liked the exercises after each session."

"A good comprehnsive overview of evaluation technniques".

"Very professional & informative. Useful & applicable to the work I do."

Thank you to all those who attended - your engaged participation made for a very interesting workshop.
