

Professor Robert has research interests around frameworks and methods to address organisational design and development challenges facing the NHS; evaluating quality and knowledge management initiatives. He is a co-applicant on our project working with NHS Boards on Quality Improvement - Implementation and evaluation of a research-based guide for NHS boards to develop their quality improvement \(QI\) strategies \(iQUASER\)