

Summary: This research aims to develop the way people are involved in decision-making in the context of large-scale changes to health services, to find out “what works” and provide evidence to make future involvement more meaningful.

Start date and duration: February 2016 - 3 years

Partners and collaborators: The Health Foundation

Supervisors: Professor Sandy Oliver, Dr Lorelei Jones, Dr Helen Barratt, Dr. Angus Ramsay, Steven Towndrow